

Predictions of Storms closed most activities for Saturday January 7, 2017. While Northern Georgia got a surprising amount of snow Atlanta did not. However, the ice rain made it very slippery and the downtown was a ghost town. We will save the problems and their solutions for a future wrangle....

